

Is That You, Lord?
(Mt 14:22-33)

Lou Soileau

refrain

Is that you, Lord, out on the water
Walking o'er the waves and through this storm?
Call me, Lord,
Call me out to join you,
Call if it is truly you, my Lord.

verse 1

I know that I am weak but my soul pines for you,
Courage is not something I have much of,
Do you see beneath this thin facade that others see?
Do you find true goodness deep within me?

verse 2

Do you really mean for me to come to you?
Do you really know what you are asking?
How can I surrender everything I've ever worked for?
Isn't all this truly what defines me?

bridge

My God, I feel I'm drowning,
Why is the pain so deep?
Where did this longing come from?
My Jesus, rescue me!

Is that you, Lord, out on the water
Walking o'er the waves and through this storm?
Call me, Lord,
Call me out to join you,
Lord, is that you calling out my name?
Yes, I hear you calling out my name!

ending refrain

It is you, Lord, out on the water!
I see you clearly through this raging storm!
Take my hand,
I'll step out to join you
Trusting it is truly you, my Lord.
Trusting it is truly you, my Lord.
